The Ladies' Covenant—A New Movement.

When the history of this rebellion shall have been written—when we shall have become a great, happy and prosperous people—it will be told that much of the glory, much of the greatness, much of the permanent present and future blessings which will be the destiny of our country—can justly be credited to the self-denying, self-devoted patriotism of the women of the present day. Indeed, what would have been the fate of this Government but for the patriotism of our women? Their noble deeds nerve the arms of our soldiers to die in the conflict of death—they cheer the fainting heart of the patriot soldier as his life blood oozes from his wounds and he lays dying upon the field of battle. "God bless our loyal women, now and forever," say we.

A remarkable meeting of the ladies of Washington, wives of Cabinet ministers, Senators, Representatives, Generals, and other officials, was held on the 2d of May last. Rev. Dr. McCurdy presided, and Mrs. Senator Lane, of Indiana, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, the authoress, Mrs. Senator Wilson, Mrs. General Loan, Mrs. Representative Pike, Mrs. Stephen A. Douglas, and Mrs. Representative Ingersoll were appointed a committee to form a constitution and prepare an address to the women of America.

Article first of the constitution declares that the name of the association shall be the Ladies' National Covenant—its object, to unite the women of the country in the earnest resolution to purchase no imported articles of apparel where American can possibly be substituted, during the continuance of the war. The president of the executive committee is Mrs. Gen. James Taylor; secretary, Mrs. Stephen Arnold Douglas. The executive committee named for different States embraces the wives of distinguished men, but their names are not given in the proceedings before us.

We give some extracts from the address adopted by the meeting. It has the ring of the true metal, and well deserves the attention of the loyal women of the nation:

ADDRESS TO THE WOMEN OF AMERICA.

In the capital of our country we have this day organized a central society for the suppression of extravagance, the diminution of foreign imports, and the practice of economy in all our social relations. To this society we have given the name of "The Ladies' National Covenant." Its object is a good and generous one, which should inspire a spirit of patriotism worthy of women who are the glory of a great nation. For this society we have an example and precedent at once august and encouraging.

In 1770, the women of Massachusetts, actuated by the same impulse that inspires us, assembled in the city of Boston, as we have met here, and resolved to serve the country by an effort of self-sacrifice far greater than we are called upon to make. On the 9th of February three hundred matrons, each the mistress of a household, met as we do now, and signed a pledge to abstain from the use of tea, the greatest luxury of the time, and the very life of all the social gatherings for which our New England ancestors were so famous. Three days after, twice that number of blooming young girls met in the same place, and signed like pledges. From that brave assemblage of women non-importation societies sprang up that produced an effect upon the mother country almost equal to that created by the success of our Revolutionary armies. During all the terrors of the war these noble women held firmly to their pledges, and by their earnestness awoke the sympathy and co-operation of every sister colony in the land. The spirit thus aroused extended itself to imported goods of all kinds, and every hearthstone was turned into an independent manufactory. Thus it was that the flax-wheel, the hatchel, and the hand-loom became sublime instruments of freedom in the hands of American women. The house-mothers of seventy-six not only kept their pledge of non-importation, but with their own hands, wrought from the raw material the garments which clothed themselves, their husbands, and children. The pledge which they took, and kept so faithfully, evoked not only great self-sacrifice, but hard, hard toil, such as the women of the present day scarcely dream of. Had they not endured and labored while their husbands fought, we should have had no mighty Union to pray and struggle for now.

We, the women of '64, have the same object to attain, and the same duties to perform, which were so nobly accomplished by the women of '76. Shall we not follow their example, and take up cheerfully the lesser burdens that the welfare of our country demands? They gave up their very comforts of life without a murmur; can we refuse when a sacrifice of feminine vanity is alone required? Can we hesitate to yield up luxuries that are so unbecoming, when the very earth trembles under our feet from the tread of armed men going down to battle, and almost every roof throughout the land shelters some mother lamenting the son who has fallen gloriously with his face to the foe, or a widow whose husband lies buried so deeply among the masses of slain heroes, that she will never learn where to seek for his grave.

* * * * * * * *

It has not been sufficiently impressed upon the women of America that the encouragement of extravagant importations is injurious to the public good. To impress this vital truth upon the women of the Union, we have entered into this solemn covenant, not only binding ourselves to a general system of economy in our persons, but holding it as a duty to impress upon others how unwomanly it is to make outward display a paramount subject of thought, when the nation is in the throes of a rebellion, such as the world never saw. Gathered here in the centre of the nation, a handful of women, intent on a certain object, anxious only for the country, we appeal to the intelligence and patriotism of our sister women throughout the length and breadth of the land. Let it be well understood, that every ounce of gold that goes from the country detracts from the pay of the soldier who is fighting for our salvation, and diminishes the wages of our sister women, who toil for their bread, when a miserable pittance that scarcely keeps them from starvation. The precious metal that flows from this country to Europe for the luxuries we do not need increases the price of gold here, depreciates the value of our national currency and helps to sweep the necessaries of life beyond the reach of the working man.

It is a painful truth, from which we shall yet learn to blush, that the importations of the most expensive goods manufactured in Europe have been far greater during the war than at any time in the history of our country. The importations last week at the New York Custom house alone amounted to five millions of dollars; and all that week—which will be forever memorable in history—the streets of Washington were blockaded up with [illegible] soldiers, [illegible] through mud, rain, or dust from the Army of the Potomac, which now lies with brave courage waiting for the carnival of death which is almost hourly its common [illegible].

For the good of our country and the honor of our sex let us redeem ourselves from this reproach of wanton extravagance. Let us prove by cheerful retrenchment that the women of the country are not so wedded to luxurious self-indulgence that they cannot fill a glorious page in the history of this war and yet retain all that is retiring and beautiful in womanhood. In all humane works they have proved themselves charitable, kind, and munificent. Let these comprehend that self-abnegation will accomplish more than works of charity, and they will not be less earnest to sacrifice than they have been to aid.

It must not be said of us that we have been willing to give up our husbands, sons, and brothers to fight or die for the Union and yet refuse to renounce our laces, silks, velvets, and diamonds. That thought would cover us with shame before the nations of the earth. No; our women of the Union only lack knowledge of the means by which they can prove themselves true help-mates of the heroes who are fighting our battles.

Impress it upon them that in discouraging excessive importations and adopting goods manufactured at home they keep gold in the country, reduce the rates of exchange, and establish confidence in the Government, and they will prove how far patriotism can rise above feminine vanity in the hearts of American women.

In order to invoke this spirit of self-sacrifice, it is important that the great object of the covenant we have made should be broadly circulated and thoroughly understood. It discourages profligate expenditures of any kind, recommends the use of domestic fabrics wherever they can be substituted for those of foreign make, and advises simplicity of attire both as a matter of policy and good taste. It asks the great sisterhood of American women to aid in this reform before it is too late. Thank God! science has given us the means of reaching thousands on thousands in a single hour. While we make this covenant, the thoughts that thrill our hearts may tremble in fire along the telegraph, and awake kindred inspiration throughout the entire land. By every means of communication in our power let us urge the necessity of prompt action. In every town and village throughout the Union, some woman who loves her country is implored to establish an auxiliary society, and forward the names of the ladies invited to act for the State in which her duty lies. We ask simultaneous action, earnest work, and general sacrifice at the hands of our sister women. With their ardent help, a work will be accomplished so important in its result, that the women who share it may, hereafter, leave the emblem of our object as the richest jewel that she can leave to posterity.

THE COVENANT—A BADGE.

The pledge or covenant (Art. 3d of the constitution,) is as follows:

"For three years, or for the war, we pledge ourselves to each other and the country, to purchase no imported article of apparel."

On motion of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, it was

Resolved, That the badge of the National Covenant shall be a black bee, with wings enamelled, according to nature, worn with a tri-color ribbon, a little in front of the left shoulder.

On motion of Mrs. Ingersoll, it was

Resolved, That while, as the wives and daughters, and women of America, we are ready and determined to practice self-denial for the benefit of the country and our sex, we earnestly request the men of America also, to abstain from the use of imported articles, especially wines, liquors and cigars.

On motion of Mrs. Morris, it was

Resolved, That the women in the nation, sympathizing with the great object of this society, be and hereby are invited to copy the covenant, record their own names thereto, and obtaining as many signatures as possible, forward the number (not the names) so obtained to the committee of their State.

Shall these noble sentiments and resolutions find an echo in the hearts of the daughters of the most distant West? Every dollar of coin sent out of our country for foreign fashionables, helps to distress our Government in its vast financial efforts to crush the rebellion—reduces the value of the paper with which our soldiers are paid for their heroic services—takes from the mouths of our manufacturing and laboring population the bread required for themselves and families—robs our nation of its money and puts it into the hands of those who if they could would crush us in our efforts to sustain free government. These are truths written upon the history of the day as with a sunbeam. We ask again if the address and resolutions of the patriotic women of Washington, shall find a response in the hearts of our mothers, wives, and daughters of this thrice glorious loyal State?

CANYON CITY ROAD GUARD.—It is with unfeigned pleasure that we publish this morning intelligence of the removal of every obstacle heretofore interposed to the progress of Judge Olney's recruiting at the Dalles. The people of Oregon are certainly under lasting obligations to Gen. Alvord for the lively interest he has taken in this and other matters affecting the prosperity of the State. By his efforts in this particular case, a most important and lucrative avenue of trade is saved to the State, and our miners are sure of protection. The following letter from the General explains itself:

FORT VANCOUVER, W. T., June 25th, 1864.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I have just received the following telegram dated yesterday, from Brig.-Gen. George Wright, commanding the Department of the Pacific:

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24—7½ P. M.

BRIG.-GEN. ALVORD—Fort Vancouver: You can accept the Detachment of Cavalry. Muster in by one of your own officers.

GEO. WRIGHT,
Brigadier General.

I have, therefore, the satisfaction of announcing that there will be no further obstacle to raising the Detachment of Cavalry Volunteers to serve until 1st November next, called by the Governor of Oregon in his Proclamation of the 11th inst. Lieut. Nathan Olney, at Fort Dalles, has been appointed the Recruiting officer by Gov. Gibbs. I hope it will be rapidly raised for the protection of the Canyon City road against the incursions of the Snake Indians.

Ten days since, I ordered the only detachment of Cavalry at Fort Walla Walla to Fort Dalles. Yesterday, Capt. R. Caldwell, 1st Oregon Cavalry, with the remainder of his company, 2d Lieut. William Ward, W. T. Volunteers, and nineteen Infantry, in all about fifty men, were order to the South Fork on the Canyon City road. Lieut. Olney's detachment will, as soon as it is raised, be placed on the same duty.

I have been earnestly desirous of giving all the protection in my power to the road to Canyon City, and to the entire mining population. I was much disappointed when I met with any obstacle to raising the Detachment of Volunteers. The public-spirited citizens of the Dalles sent a gentleman to me asking me to call out said Detachment. I promptly complied with their wishes, having ample authority for the same. I am gratified now to see that the difficulties in carrying out those views, so unexpectedly encountered, have been removed.

Capt. Drake and Capt. Currey, each with one hundred men, are now near Harney Lake. They are well fitted out, and each take from their depots 50 or 60 days' rations for their commands, and are prepared for the most efficient service.

Very Respectfully, Your ob't serv't,
BENJ. ALVORD,
Brigadier General, U. S. Volunteers.

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 22.

Democratic Convention Postponed to August 29th.

Sherman presses forward to a new and important position.

The Rebels make desperate but unsuccessful attempts to retake it.

Blair crosses the Chattahoochee.

Johnson masses his Artillery to prevent our right from crossing.

Burnside pushes the enemy—His victory greater than first reported—Four guns and 400 prisoners taken.

Lee's Army rapidly reinforcing.

Beauregard retakes the post taken by Burnside, after a desperate fight.

Our losses, killed and wounded, June 18th and 19th—8000.

Union lines 1400 yards from the City.

Great excitement in the Gold Market,

Gold goes up to 235 and falls again to 208.

Rebel Reports of Rebel victories.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 21.—Some skirmishing took place along the line yesterday and last night, but no change of position was made by either party during two days' engagement. We are throwing up earthworks at different points. Our lines reach within three-quarters of a mile of Petersburg. They seem determined to hold out to the last.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The executive committee of the National Democratic committee, to-day resolved to postpone the meeting of the Democratic Convention to Aug. 29th.

WASHINGTON, June 22—Midnight.—Dispatches from City Point at 4:30 in the evening, say there is no fighting to-day. There are movements in progress not proper to publish.

Richmond papers report an attack upon the enemy's communications at other points.

A dispatch from Sherman's headquarters at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, states that it rained almost incessantly, in spite of which our lines pressed forward steadily and an important position was gained by Gen. Howard. The enemy made desperate but unsuccessful attempts on the same evening to retake the position, but they were unsuccessful in every trial.

Our cavalry on the left are across Noose creek and one brigade of the 3d corps passed the Noose on the right: the rebels are behind the swamp, and the rains prevent any advance.

(Signed) STANTON.

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Staff officers from the front report heavy fighting on our left. Black's corps were storming the enemy's work. Our whole army is in line, and there was no firing along the entire front, the rebels being slowly driven back by artillery; our losses slight. Blair is reported south of Chattahoochie river. On Wednesday night Johnson had massed his artillery to prevent our right from crossing. A severe fight is expected there.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY POTOMAC, June 18.—Burnside's attack on the enemy's line yesterday morning is more successful than was first reported. He drove the rebels from the rifle pits with heavy loss, taking four guns, 400 prisoners and holding the position. During the afternoon, he pushed the enemy still further, getting within about a mile and a half of the city and taking more prisoners. Shells were thrown into town. Firing during the remainder of the day was desultory and very little change took place in position on either side. In the evening our left was still further advanced. Fighting continued nearly all night. This morning considerable firing is going on, but nothing definite had been heard in regard to it.

The 8th corps came up last night and reinforced our left.

Reports were current yesterday that Butler had advanced to the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad, and was destroying the track, when Lee surprised and drove him back into his intrenchments with heavy loss. Nothing official had been received at headquarters of the particulars. No troops have been sent to his support. Yesterday afternoon heavy firing was heard at intervals in that direction.

Prisoners taken yesterday report that 35,000 of Lee's men had arrived on the field yesterday morning.

Trains are running almost hourly from Richmond bring troops close to Petersburg and then hurrying back.

PITTSBURG, June 19.—The Sanitary Fair closed to-night. Net receipts were three hundred thousand dollars.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The House yesterday passed a resolution authorizing the President to notify Great Britain of the intention of the United State Government to terminate at the end of a month the treaty of 1817, relative to the rights of our naval force on the Great Lakes.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The public debt including all legal tender notes and unpaid requisitions is 171,939,510,868. The amount of interest-bearing legal tender notes withdrawn, is 33,190,700, amount of ordinary Treasury notes withdrawn and placed in reserve is 17,258,872, showing reduction at present of legal tender notes of all descriptions 56,149,572.

This statement shows the actual present state of the debt and circulation of course. It will be necessary to replace a portion of the 5 per cent. legal tender notes with compound interest at six per cent.

(Signed) S. P. CHASE.

Mr. Cisco states he has positive assurance that the Secretary of the Treasury purposes to contract the circulation as much as possible and to regulate the future issues of currency by the strictest necessity.

The Senate to-night refused by three majority to strike out the $300 exemption clause to the enrollment act. The section to make the draft for a year was retained.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Herald's Washington special says: Hancock's old wound is so troublesome that he has asked to be removed. The request was granted, and Birney commands his corps. Hancock did not command in Saturday's fight.

There are thirty thousand rebel troops in Petersburg who are continually being reinforced.

The Times special of the 12th says, the rebels on Friday night made a furious attack on Burnside's front, and after a severe contest re-occupied the post he had taken the previous morning. This change of the line concentrated Beauregard's forces, while it enables our troops to cover important approaches to the left and right place.

The city is within range of our guns, about 400 yards.

Our losses during the past two days is 8000 killed and wounded.

At five P. M., an advance was made on the rebel lines to develop the position, which was accompanied with considerable loss in killed and wounded.

Birney's division suffered most. Prisoners states that Beauregard commands the city with his army.

A portion of his forces are under Longstreet, Wilcox and Ewell.

There is no decisive evidence of the presence of more than a small portion of Lee's army.

NEW YORK, June 21st.—The bankers and brokers appointed a committee to-day to hasten to Washington and endeavor to secure the repeal and modification of the gold bill.

The Commercial's money article says the Gold market is in a most excited condition.

Suspension of public competition effected by the gold bill, has thrown the trade directly into the hands of speculators. They now make their own prices and have made ad libitum use of the prerogative. The pressure only increased the quotations by holders and the process continued until noon, when brokers were paying 235 and selling at 240. The effect has been to entirely suspend operations in foreign exchange. Speculators do not know what to ask, and refuse to give quotations. One large firm asked $15 00 to a pound sterling.

At 12 M., gold took a downward turn. A large lot was thrown upon the market at 239, which put it down 15 per cent. Brokers are buying at 210 and selling 220.

At 3 P. M., they sold at 208.

Washington dispatches report to-day in Congressional circles, that Chase will negotiate a foreign loan immediately after the passage of the loan bill now before Congress. The bill contains provisions authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to negotiate such loan.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The following rebel reports are from Baltimore papers.

A telegram from the forks of the Tupelo, of the 16th, says that the victory over Sturgis is complete; the number of killed, wounded and captured Federals exceed the number of our troops that were engaged.

A telegram from Marietta says that there was but little skirmishing by the enemy yesterday. Hooker made a charge on [illegible] cavalry, and was repulsed with great slaughter, the enemy not being able to bring [illegible] to bear.

The Richmond Enquirer says the Yankee force of 15,000 strong under Hunter, Crook and Averill are at Forest Depot, on the Central Road, eight or ten miles from Lynchburg. They have done a great deal of damage to the road.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The following intelligence is by the North American:

In the House of Commons the question of Federal recruiting in Ireland was again debated, and many and [illegible] expressions were made against it.

Earl Russell complained of the [illegible] attention of the Government at Washington to the representations made on the subject by Lord Lyons.

The conference has been extended to the 26th of June.

No advance has been made towards the settlement of existing difficulty, and hostilities will be renewed between the Danes and Germans.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Steamer Golden Age not yet arrived.

Insurance companies are charging 25 and 30 per cent. insurance against her total loss.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times learns that the French Government has sent two delegates to America—one civil and the other military—to ascertain and report upon the real state of the condition of affairs, and of the immense slaughter in the present war. Overtures have also been made by France to England, with the view to devise some means of putting a stop to the frightful carnage. He reviews the affairs in Virginia as unfavorable to the Federal cause, and will not be surprised to hear of Grant's failure.

The cession of the Ionian Islands to Greece has been formally completed.

ON DIT.—It is reported the Democrat, lately uttering its treason from Albany, will be removed to Salem, and that an effort will be made to bring the Review from Eugene City to the same place and consolidate. While we pity Salem, we congratulate the communities that are to be thus freed from the noisome curse of treason and traitors.

FREEDMENS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION.—C. H. Brackett, Esq., Agent of this Association will speak at Dayton next Friday evening, and at Lafayette Saturday evening at 7½ o'clock. It is earnestly hoped that the citizens of these localities will secure him full houses.

PERMANENT SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—We understand that a majority of 50 votes is claimed for Salem as the State Capital. The figures have not yet come to hand which demonstrate this, but it may be so. "Figures won't lie."

ANOTHER DAILY.—We are informed that the publishers of the Oregon Statesman, at Salem, contemplate issuing a daily edition after the Fourth of July.

TEN FORTY BONDS AND ONE YEAR NOTES.—We notice in the window of Messrs. Holmes & Spear, brokers, a quantity of 10-40 five per cent. U. S. bonds, and one year five per cent. interest bearing notes; the first we have seen in San Francisco. The bonds of $500 and less have thirty-nine coupons, the last year's interest being payable with the bond; those for an amount over $500 have seventy-nine coupons, the interest being payable semi-annually. These bonds are issued under act of "March 3d, '64, and are payable, principal and interest, in gold. They are "Redeemable after ten years, payable in forty years," according to the stipulations on their face. The one-year notes are issued under the act of March 3d, '63, and draw five per cent. interest, payable in U. S. Treasury Notes. The denominations are $20 and upwards. In the right lower corner of the bonds and the $20 notes is a shield, bearing the legend, "In God We Trust," and in the left one inscribed, "God and Our Right."

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine.
A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business, with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864. Those, therefore who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr. Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay before the first day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Dr. Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California, Dr. Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing, who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr. Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application in an state proposals.

Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

NAVIGATION OF THE WILLAMETTE.—As the water commences to recede in the Willamette river, the question of its bars begins again to attract consideration. So much has been said heretofore however, in relation to the Sauvies Island bar, and particularly the Swan Island bar, that there is no further use for comment in that direction, and we propose to devote this item to obstructions above Portland. It may not be known to the new inhabitants among us, that the enterprising citizens of Oregon City, undertook several years ago, to remedy an evil that existed near the mouth of the Clackamas at the rapids bearing that name, by constructing a dam across the main channel—which was narrow, crooked and at the best impracticable for the side wheel steamer Lot Whitcomb then used in the Oregon City trade. This dam was thrown across to the head of an island, and was designed to increase the depth of water on the rapids sufficient to allow any steamer of ordinary draught to pass over them. But the purpose failed, and for seasons past Clackamas rapids have been about as much impediment to navigation at certain stages of the water, as the Willamette Falls. At least if not so majestic the place has been marked by a change from one steamer to another on the way from Portland to Oregon City. At other stages since the introduction of the Rival, it has been necessary to cordel steamers some three hundred feet, over the worst part of the rapids. This has been effected in a novel way regarding the Rival by a buoyed line running from a sunken anchor, and attached to the capstan of the boat when an application of steam forward and aft brought the craft above the contested rapids. But all this will probably be avoided the coming season, as it is understood the People's Transportation Company have it in view to soon remove the dam, and accept of the old channel, with its difficulties, rather than transfer their freight and employ two boats in the trade. The present class of steamers, used by them below the Falls, are adapted to the change.

GOING TO THE EAST.—The John L. Stephens carries away this morning an unusually large number of passengers, many of whom propose to visit the Atlantic States. Among them is our esteemed fellow citizen, Captain [illegible] Myrick, well known as the popular commander for many years, of steamers between here and Oregon City,—who goes with his wife and children to tarry for a while among his friends in New England. We wish them a safe and pleasant journey, and can assure Captain Jo that a host of friends will [illegible] to see him back again, as soon as he [illegible].

OVER ZEALOUS.—Two covies met on Front street yesterday, and commenced an ardent talk about the pending foot race. As the conversation proceeded, the parties became rabid with excitement, when one proposed that he [illegible] the other in a foot race to Milwaukie for $100, the second party spurned such a proposition, and grinding his right [illegible] palm of his left hand, very earnest[illegible] match him in a race to Salem, for $1[illegible]. The parties turned away to put up [illegible]—or take a drink, we know not which, but most likely the latter.

TWO MORE.—Quartz mills are coming in upon us with such suddenness that we are astonished to think men from California will be so [illegible] after reading the Scientific Press. Two very excellent quartz mills arrived on the steamer John L. Stephens and are taken up the Columbia to day by the boats of the O. S. N. Company. One is for working the discovery claim of the Oro Fino lode, in Owyhee and is consigned to J. Marion Moore, one of the pioneers of Boise. The other is destined to parties in Umatilla, and we understand [illegible] also for Owyhee.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The annual examination of the children attending the schools under the charge of the Sisters of the Most Holy Names in this city, will take place today at St. Mary's Academy. The morning examination commences at half past nine o'clock. The afternoon examination commences at half past one. In the evening the advanced classes will give their annual exhibition, commencing at half past six o'clock. The programme which has been furnished us is replete with interest.

A "FOWL" TRANSACTION.—A farmer complained to us on Friday, that a man had purchased of him, at a stated price, several dozen chickens, and after he had obtained possession of them, refused to pay the price in coin, and the farmer was compelled to take less than the market rates. It was a foul transaction to say the least, and the fellow, who is said to keep boarders, ought not to complain if he received greenbacks for the same poultry. Such transactions are not calculated to increase the confidence of the country people.

AN EXCURSION AND WEDDING.—The steamer Rescue made an excursion to Vancouver yesterday, and among the passengers was a pair of young'uns who improved of the occasion to have their cup of connubial felicity filled by a visit to Hymen's altar, at the Gretna Green of Oregon. Their plans were surmised and a crowd followed them from the boat to witness the ceremony, and on the return they were serenaded, and nearly toasted to death.

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER.—Yesterday and day before were very pleasant, clear, warm, bright sunny days. The evening air was of a balmy softness, the streets dry, and every house in the city seemed to have turned its inmates out of doors to luxuriate in the open air. The church doors stood invitingly open during the hours of service yesterday, and the streets were filled with promenaders in the evening, strolling leisurely through the city.

CIRCUIT COURT.—In the Circuit Court on Saturday, judgment of $1,500 was rendered for the plaintiffs, in the case of Starr vs. the O. S. N. Co. Judgment for $300 was rendered the plaintiff, in the case of Butler vs. Miller. The term, which is already somewhat protracted, will consume several days more.

ARRIVAL OF THE FALKINBURG.—This bark, which left San Francisco on the 10th inst. came direct to this port, arriving yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, in tow of the steamer John H. Couch. She brings about 500 tons of freight for Portland.

A RUNAWAY.—The team of Thomas Kelly ran away on Friday evening, in the vicinity of the Asylum, throwing Mr. Kelly from the wagon, which was loaded with lumber, bruising him very badly. The wagon was broke, and the lumber scattered broadcast.

A BIG RACE TO COME OFF.—The fanciers of healthy sports have been for some days arranging a big foot race, which is to come off in the vicinity of this city to-morrow. [illegible] This race 150 yards. [illegible]

THE AMATEUR CONCERT.—The receipts at the concert given for Mrs. Denison's benefit at Willamette Theatre on Saturday evening netted about $200. The music on the occasion was excellent. Miss Foster sang three choice pieces which showed her to be an amateur of no small pretentions. Miss Brenner, a little [illegible] but nine years of age executed a difficult piece from Norma on the violin, which was a noticeable feature of the entertainment.

THE CARGO OF THE CAMBRIDGE.—The Portland steam saw mill of Messrs. Harbaugh & Stitzel furnish 200,000 feet of lumber to the cargo of the bark Cambridge so it is expected a full loading will be made up in our city for the Sandwich Islands.

YANKEE SANDERS.—The veritable Yank has made his mark in Oregon by giving the casting vote in Jacksonville, defeating W. G. T'Vault's election as Prosecuting Attorney of the First Judicial District. T'Vault acknowledges the "corn" through the columns of his own paper.

A CORRECTION.—A mistake of the printer caused us to say that Hon. G. H. Williams would deliver an oration on the Fourth at Yamhill (?). It should have been Eugene City.

DODGE'S CONCERT.—Ossian E. Dodge and Wm. Hayward will sing at the Court House in this city to-night. This will be their last concert in Portland.

Freedman's Relief Association.—The following gentlemen, selected as the Oregon State Committee will please meet at the office of George H. Williams (this) Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast growing and scrofulous children predisposed to curvatures and other deformities it is often disagreeable to give a tonic without stimulants and an alterative without irritation. For such it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be affectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties and it is recommended to mothers enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers every where. ap26d1m

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies whatever their acknowledged value or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all.
Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Doing a Landlord; or Gettin' the Value On't.

Shortly after the conjunction of the "Great National Road" through Ohio, this incident occurred.

There was, in a quiet little village through which this road passed, a hotel where the stages always "changed," and the passengers expected to get breakfast. The landlord of said hotel was noted for "tricks upon the travelers," who were allowed to get fairly seated at the table, when the driver would blow his horn, and sing out "Stage ready, gentlemen!" whereupon the passengers had to hurry out and take their seats, leaving a scarcely tasted breakfast behind them; however they had to fork over fifty cents. Time and place you have; now the how our hero succeeded in getting the value on't.

The hero I speak of, was one of nine male passengers in a stage coach, which was slowly approaching the village above mentioned, one cold morning in February, 18—

"Gentlemen," said one of the nine, "I have often traveled this road before, and, out of good feeling to all, I will caution you against hugging the delusive phantom of hope, as regards getting breakfast at the hotel we are approaching."

"What—how? No breakfast?" exclaimed the rest.

"Exactly so; you may as well keep your seats and tin."

"Don't they expect passengers to breakfast?"

"Oh, yes! they expect you to it, but not to eat it. I am under the impression that there is an understanding between the landlord and the driver, that for sundry and various drinks, etc, the latter starts before you can scarcely commence eating."

"W-h-y, wot on earth yew talking about? Ef you calkerlate I'm goin' to pay four ninepences for my breakfast, and not get the value on't, you are mistaken," said a voice from the back seat, the owner of which was one Hezekiah Spalding—though "tew hum" they called him "Hez" for short.

"I am goin' tew get my breakfast yere, and not pay 'nary red' till I dew."

"Then you'll be left."

"Not as yew knows on I won't!"

"Well, we'll see," said the other, and the landlord, ready to do the hospitable, says:

Breakfast ready, gents; take a wash, gents? Here's water, basins, towels and soap.

After performing their ablutions, they all proceeded to the dining-room, and commenced a fierce onslaught on the edibles, though Hez took his more coolly. Scarcely had they tasted their coffee, when they heard the unwelcome sound of the horn, and the driver exclaim:

"Stage ready!"

Up rise eight grumbling passengers, pay their fifty cents, and take their seats.

"All aboard, gents?" inquired the host.

"One missing," said they.

Proceeding to the dining-room, the host finds Hez very coolly helping himself to an immense piece of stake.

"You'll be left, sir! Stage is going to start."

"Wall, I ain't got nothin' to say agin it," drawls out Hez.

"[illegible] sir; better take your seat."

"D[illegible]?"

[illegible]

"I'll be darned if I dew nuther, till I get my breakfast! I paid for it, and if yew calkerlate I aint, yew are mistaken."

So the stage did start, and left Hez, who continued his attack on the edibles. Biscuits, coffee, steaks, etc, etc., disappeared rapidly before the eyes of the astonished landlord.

"Say, Squire, them there cakes is 'bout east. Fetch us nother grist on 'em. You! [illegible] waiter! 'nuther cup of that 'air coffee. Pass them eggs. Raise yew're own pork, Squire? This is 'mazin nice ham. Land 'bout here [illegible] Squire? Hain't got much mouth timber in these parts, hev ye? Doin' right smart trade, Squire, I kalkerlate."

And thus Hez kept dizzing the landlord, until he had made a hearty meal.

"Say, Squire, now I'm 'bout to conclude paying dew wets tew this 'ere table, but ef yew'd jus' give us a bowl 'o bread and milk tew sorter top off with I'd be obliged tew you."

So out goes the landlord and waiter for the bowl, milk, and bread, and set them before Hez.

"Spoon, tew, ef you please!"

But no spoon was to be found. Landlord was sure he had plenty of silver ones lying on the table when the stage stopped.

"Say yew! dew yew think them passengers is goin' tew pay yo for a breakfast and not get no compensashun?"

"Ah! what! Do you think any of the passengers took them?"

"Dew I think! No, I don't think, but I'm certain [illegible] they're all as green as yew, I [illegible] going tew move immediately."

The landlord rushes out to the stable, and starts a man off in the stage, which has gone three miles. The man overtakes the stage, and says something to the driver in a low tone. He immediately turns back, and, on arriving at the hotel, Hez comes out to take his seat, and says:

"How are yew, gents? I'm darned glad tew see ye!"

Landlord says to Hez:

"Can you point out the man you think has the spoons?"

"Pint him out? Sartinely I kin. Say, Squire, I paid you four ninepences for a breakfast, and I kalkerlate I got the value on't! You'll find them spoons in the coffee-pot."

"Go ahead; all aboard, driver."

Gen. Grant.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from Washington, says: "It is stated that about a week ago, a Baltimore gentleman, who had a conversation with the President, reported him expressing the utmost confidence in General Grant, adding, 'When I listen to him explaining his plans, not purpose, in the approaching campaign, I am appalled at the magnitude and astounded at the confidence he seems to feel in his ability to accomplish them.'"

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, speaking of the battle of Thursday, May 12th, in Virginia, and of Grant's coolness, says: "An incident occurred that illustrates the coolness and self-possession of the Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the United States. While the heaviest artillery firing in the morning was in progress, Gen. Grant was standing in company with Gen. Meade, near a fire, talking and endeavoring to keep themselves dry, when a rebel shell struck within a few feet of the twain. A disposition to move was manifested on the part of a number of officers standing around, when Gen. Grant looked slowly around, and fixed his eyes on the spot where the shell struck, asked at once for a pocket compass, which, being furnished, he examined the course of the shell, found out the location of the battery, and it was not long before shells were thick among the men working said battery.

The N. Y. Commercial says: "Wounded officers who have arrived here from the battle-fields, are loud in their praises of Gen. Grant's skill in handling the troops. A wounded Colonel, in referring to his management, said, 'You can believe the general officers had to stand around at Chancellorsville. I never saw before so many Brigadiers in front.'"

Compressed wool, in place of iron plates, as a covering for naval vessels (rams particularly, we suppose,) had been suggested by Mr. Naysmith, and tried by the English Admiralty.

When a poor fellow is about to be burned by the savages, his very existence is at stake.

"The Work of the Destructionists.—There have existed at all times, and under all forms of government, a class of people who can best be described as destructionists. They are not always animated by a desire to plunge a nation into the gulf of anarchy or insanity; they are generally only eager to overturn existing policies and forms, in the hope that in the consequent confusion, their crotchets may be adopted, their theories made demonstrable, or their ambitious interests advanced. The tide of revolution hurls this class of people to the surface; they are visible for a time upon its foaming crest, and then are cast upon dry land. The shores of time are covered with theories of government and plans of dreamers left rotting in the sun by receding waters. The mission of fanatical advocates of schisms in religion and politics is never altogether without benefit. Whilst irritants, it often aids to purify the body politic, and in the schemes of zealots is often contained the principles of great reforms, which, in abler hands, and under the fostering of wiser heads, work great benefits to true progress. It is possible that, viewed in the light of philosophy, the country may receive some ultimate benefit from the assembling of the Convention of so "called" radicals now in session at Cleveland, Ohio, and it is also possible that in the economy of Divine Providence there may be some use for the probable nominee of that Convention—John C. Fremont—although we confess the latter presumption to be unfounded upon anything in the past career of that person. But whatever of good may ultimately result from the nomination of a "radical" candidate for the Presidency, such a movement cannot now be regarded as anything else than a selfish and desperate struggle for place at the possible expense of the Union cause, or as a cunning trick to aid the common enemies of the Union.

The Electoral College, based upon the Congressional representation of the States, consists of 321 members. A majority of the whole number, or 161 votes, are necessary to elect a President. If no one person shall receive 161 votes in that College, the election would necessarily go into the House of Representatives, where the members vote by States, and where Oregon or Kansas would cast the same vote as New York. Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas, will probably not be represented in the Electoral College, but the number required for an election (161) remains the same nevertheless. It is not impossible that the Copperhead candidate for the Presidency may receive the votes of Kentucky, New Jersey and Pennsylvia, leaving one hundred and ninety-seven electoral votes for the Union nominees. The radicals would, in such an event, need only thirty-seven votes to deprive the nominee of the Baltimore Convention of a constitutional majority, and throw the election into the House of Representatives. The six New England States could just furnish these thirty-seven votes if disposed. New York with one other State could furnish them. Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri, all of which are claimed by Fremont's friends, could furnish them. Ohio and Illinois would come within one vote of the necessary amount. In fact, it would be among the political possibilities to obtain for Fremont a sufficient electoral vote to jeopardize Lincoln's election by the people. It is upon this probability that those who are using Fremont base their action; and they are bending to their schemes and carrying in their train the selfish fanatics too plentiful in our land, who would rather not see the Union restored at all unless it was restored according to their peculiar ideas.—Virginia Daily Union.

Gen. Burnside's Part in the Great Drama.—When Gen. Grant discovered the large reinforcements that Lee's army was receiving, he ordered Gen. Burnside to march to Washington with 30,000 of his 40,000 troops, encamped at Annapolis. The remaining 10,000 proceeded to Fortress Monroe, to help Butler's operations. The special duty assigned to Burnside was that of protecting Washington. He detached his black troops, some 8,000 men, and placed them in the fortifications and stockades along the railroad, between Alexandria and the Rappahannock. With the remaining 22,000, he followed after the main column under Grant, making reconnaissances to the North to see that Lee did not dispatch any considerable force toward the city of Washington. Grant crossed the Rappahannock and opened the fight on Wednesday. Burnside, instead of halting, pressed hard after Grant, and by a forced march of 25 miles, reached the field of battle on Thursday evening. The next day he went into the fight with his corps of reserves with all the dash and bravery that signalized Marshal Ney, at the head of Napoleon's Old Guard. His promptitude and intrepidity saved our lines from impending disaster on several occasions, on bloody Friday. All honor to the heroic patriot, Burnside.—St. Louis cor. Alta.

A Paris rumor quoted by the London Globe insists on the existence of a secret article in the convention between the French and Mexican Emperors, in virtue of which previous to the final evacuation of the Gulf by the legions of Gaul, they are to be concentrated toward the Pacific and put in occupancy of the Sonora district, including the harbor of Acapulco, ostensibly as a reserve force in case of aggression from North America, but in reality to lay a groundwork for permanent annexation to France of that metalliferous tract, which all the local governments in succession have never hitherto turned to account.

There is sufficient plausibility in this scheme to warrant the Journal de Brussels in ventilating it; nor was it at all necessary to revive the remembrance of former French adventures in these diggings, when Comte Raousset de Boulbon, made a dash some years back, at them from Lower California. There is already a protectorate established over the island of Tahiti, and nothing connected with the Isthmus of Panama has been overlooked by Louis Napoleon. A real Savoy on the Pacific seaboard looms in the no distant future.—Foreign Paper.

A letter from Knoxville relates the following incident:

The guerilla Reynolds was recently confronted in prison here by a man whose under jaw had been shot away by a bullet. The prisoners were drawn up into a circle, and the wounded man walked straight up to Reynolds and pointed him out as the person who did the deed. He was one of the three Union men whom Reynolds took out of the hands of the rebel guard, and deliberately shot not long since. He thought they were all dead, but this man survived; and now, like one risen from the grave, confronts the murderer in his cell. Reynolds, it is said turned very pale. He stands a chance of turning paler before long.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D., JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY, Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

Assayer to the State of Massachusetts,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co. Physicians and Chemists, New York.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is at once gently soothing and conservative. It rectifies, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produces nutricious blood and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! Purchase only of reliable dealers. Sold everywhere.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition
